The Dursleys are proud to say that they're "perfectly normal, thank you very much." That's why Uncle Vernon is keen to keep Harry from discovering his magical heritage. However, despite boarding up the mail slot and taking the family to a remote island, he can't prevent Harry from receiving his Hogwarts letter.

Imagine that you received an unexpected letter of acceptance from a unique school. How would your family and friends react? What would the school specialize in, and what would the letter say? Would you accept the offer? Write a short description of how these life-changing events might unfold.
